I wish we could put up some of the Christmas spirit in jars and open a jar of it every month.-- Harlan Miller

With apologies to Harlan Miller, it's clear that we at the YWC really do open a jar of the Christmas Spirit every month of the year! Kate Holwerk, our Community Service Chair has shared two such examples from our November community service activities. One jar of Christmas Spirit coming up!

On November 14th, Hosparus hosted an event for all of their clients who had lost someone in the last year, and they asked Younger Woman's Club to provide the table coverings and decorations. The location got changed, the date got changed, and then, the week before the event, the RSVPs from clients swelled from 160 to 300 people.

Kelly Carroll, member elect, made 36 of the the most incredible centerpieces - they had pheasant feathers, green apples, gold branches, and greenery nestled into tissue paper bundles tied with gold rope with greenery and osage oranges as side accents - and, she made all of this in less than two hours. She is truly the Macguyver of floral arrangements! Thanks, Kelly!

The Fabulous Forties and the Members-Elect teamed up to provide Sunday brunch on November 7th for the families staying at Ronald McDonald House. Two husbands came along, too, and even went out of their way to run an extra errand and buy milk for the whole facility when they discovered the house had run out. In addition to cooking and serving, we had a fantastic "behind the scenes" tour with YWC's own Elizabeth Bowling. Thank you to all who participated!

Ronald McDonald House provides a home away from home for families of critically ill children who are being treated at area hospitals. If you would like to donate and cook a meal at Ronald McDonald House, they are scheduling reservations for January 2011. Contact Christina Johnson at christina@rmhc-kentuckiana.org

Happy Holidays,

The holiday season is in full swing! We have so many fun and exciting events planned for this December, some of which are my most favorite of the year. I plan on attending all of these. I hope to see all of you there too!

If you don't already have some holiday cheer or even if you do, then you can't miss the highly anticipated Holiday Tea and Cookie Exchange. Many of us agree that these are must dos for the holiday season. Holiday Tea provides a fabulous shopping event, great food, and wonderful company with our members and friends. The cookie exchange is always so fun and casual and you can bring the kiddos and enjoy some festive and yummy cookies. Our Garden Co-Chairs, Carolyn Sheldon and Hunter Weinberg, have been working hard to continue this tradition to make both of these events very special holiday treats for all of us.

You simply can't miss our "Shopping for a Cause" Event at Work the Metal on December 2nd. This shopping event is on a Thursday night so make it a girl's night, cross some people off your list from your fabulous finds, and remember that a percentage of the proceeds benefit our charity campaign. It is definitely a win/win situation for everyone involved.

December is charities group kickoff month as well. Our co-chairs, Whitney Watt and Emily Maynard, have worked very hard receiving applications and organizing all the charity requests for you. If you have never participated in this group, you simply have to get involved. YWC employs a unique process from other organizations in that each of you can participate in allocating the funds that we raise throughout the year to deserving charities. You actually can be a part of this process and know firsthand where this money is distributed. As a side note, this is a great opportunity to get to know others in the club. Everyone is so passionate about making sure our hard raised funds are distributed well. If this is your second active year and you have never served on this committee, then you are automatically in this group. As a member-elect, you will get to learn about this process too. I look forward to sharing in this experience! However, don't forget that if you still have not made your charity contribution, you need to do so ASAP. Remember the amount of money we raise now allows this group more money to allocate to our charities. We cannot meet this need without each of you. Make your contribution today!

YWC Charity Ball will be here before you know it, so if you haven't already be sure to include it on your calendar for February 5th at the Pendennis Club. If you have any leads or any auction items or sponsorships you can contribute please contact our ball chairs, Shari Broeker or Jennifer Reece.

I want to give a special thank you to our board. They have planned a wonderful calendar with many fun events for the year. May the new year bring in a successful and prosperous 2011 so that we have the opportunity to make our lives and the lives of others in our community so much better in the coming year! May this holiday season be your best ever!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

— Laura

Charity Ball

Feel the Nawrlin's spirit at the 2011 YWC Charity Ball:
*Laissez Les Bon Temps Rouler!!!

We are so excited about The Younger Woman's Club Ball this year!! Your Ball committee has been hard at work since early this summer. We have made some great headway, but we still have a ways to go...

You spoke and we listened...we are changing things up this year! Gone is the boring dinner; there will be heavy passed hors d'oeuvres and stations all around the Ballroom. There is also going to be an OPEN BAR, we are working hard on getting our sponsors to pay for the bar this year. We are planning on you only having to open your wallet when you spend a lot of money at the Auction.

Speaking of Sponsors and the Auction....don't forget that we still need both! We are of course asking our members to help us raise more money than ever...if you know of any untapped resources please let us know. There are five levels of Corporate Sponsors ranging from just $400 for the Ruby level all the way to our exclusive Diamond Sponsor at $4,000. Please contact Lisa Bonick if you need the corporate sponsorship form!

We are still looking for great auction items....we already have an I-Pod Nano and a Blu-Ray/DVD Player (how many boyfriends or husbands will be ready to run up the bidding on THAT!)... and we just received a Rajon Rondo autographed ball for your favorite UK fan!

Just think - If everyone in the club procures just one item we will have the best auction ever. Get creative! For example: Do you know a local pastry chef? Well how about asking them to do a baking class for a winner and 3 friends at their home? Does your husband or a friend own a construction company? How about they donate an "up close and personal" look at a bulldozer, which could be a great "Bob the Builder-themed birthday party!"

We are looking to all our YWC members to help us make this the best Charity Ball ever!

Let the good times roll!

Golden Rule Committee

The Golden Rule Committee is looking for women interested in preparing (or purchasing) the occasional family meal for YWC members who have recently given birth, are in the hospital, or have had some other major life event where meals would be appreciated. We hope to have a list of ten people or more to contact as the need arises--the first person or two to respond to the group email would make the meal. Ideally, you would only make a meal or two during the entire year. Making the meals is completely voluntary--there are no requirements that you do it when asked. If interested, please contact Krissie White (Krissie.White@hotmail.com) to have your name added to the email list. This is a great way to help out a friend or make a new friend!

A reminder from our Website chair, Sheri Dasgupta—

Our YWC website is newly updated! Surf on over to www.ywclouisville.org, and you'll find a complete calendar of events, along with links for reservations and payment, details on the Charity Ball and much more!
